

“Our firm was the first boutique family law practice in this area, and we’ve earned a reputation for quality, loyalty to our clients and attention to detail.”

Bill Koons, founding partner of the firm, is one of the pioneers of family law in Texas and across the nation.

Mr. Koons is a past Chairman of the State Bar of Texas’ Family Law Specialization Advisory Commission. He is a past member of the Texas Family Law Council, a past President of the Texas Academy of Family Law Specialists and a past President and Founder of the Texas Chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers.

He became Senior Partner at one of the nation’s first boutique law firms dedicated solely to the practice of family law when he formed Koons, Smith & Johnson in 1978.

Mr. Koons was called “the toughest divorce lawyer in town” by DallasLife Magazine and “one of the most called-on divorce lawyers” in the country by USA Weekend.

He has been named one of the top six divorce lawyers in Dallas by D Magazine. Over the years, he has been consistently listed among the nation’s top family law practitioners in The Best Lawyers In America.

Born October 11, 1931 in New Orleans, Louisiana, he was educated at Southern Methodist University (B.B.A., 1956; J.D., 1958).

Board Certified in Family Law and Civil Trial Law,
Texas Board of Legal Specialization.
